March 2011

Dear November 25 to December 16, 2011 Trip D Member,

Here are the General Trip Conditions with Addendum and Application to Participate for Kasma Loha-unchit's November 25 to December 16, 2011 twenty day trip to North-eastern Thailand (Isaan). In order to reserve a spot we ask that you return the Application to Participate along with a $400 deposit.

We are glad you've decided to travel with Kasma to Thailand in 2011. If you have not yet read the Frequently Asked Questions, we ask that you do so. We will send you a copy if you can not access them online at:

<http://www.thaifoodandtravel.com/travel/tripfaq.html>

Flight Arrangements

Due to the volatility of airline pricing, our trip price includes the portion of the trip in Thailand, only. It includes all transportations costs in Thailand but not the price of getting to and from Thailand.

We can book your flight from San Francisco and add the cost of air travel to the trip cost. In some circumstances, we may be able to book your flight directly from a closer city, depending on the carrier we have selected for the year. If we make your travel arrangements, we usually are able to pick you up at the airport and deliver you back to the airport at the end of the trip.

Alternatively, you could make arrangements to get to and from Bangkok on your own. In this instance, you are responsible for getting to and from the airport; however if your schedule matches the schedule of the flight we have chosen for other trip members, we may be able to pick you up and deliver you.

At the time of your enrollment in the trip we can check with our agent and let you know what the air travel cost would be at that time.

Travel Insurance

We do not provide travel or cancellation insurance of any kind. If you wish to purchase it on your own, most companies require that you purchase it within two weeks of the date on your check for the initial trip payment in order to get full coverage, including coverage of pre-existing medical conditions. If you are thinking of getting insurance you should find a plan and make sure of the conditions for payment prior to sending your deposit.

One plan that appears worth investigating is from Travel Guard, found online at: www.travelguard.com. Their phone number is 800-826-4919.

Another option to find and purchase travel insurance is online by doing a search on "travel insurance" at www.google.com.

Please do get in touch if you have any other questions.

We look forward to traveling together during coming fall!

Best,

Addendum
General Trip Conditions
Trip D – Northeastern Thailand (Isaan)
November 25 to December 16, 2011 (21 days)

This page lists the areas that have caused some difficulty on past trips. By signing the Application to Participate you signify your acceptance of these conditions.

Food

All meals provided on the trip will be Thai and other Asian food. Kasma does all the ordering for the entire group. You must love Thai food. Since the food is served “family style,” we cannot accept anyone who has special dietary needs – including food allergies, strong food preferences or not eating a specific food be it animal (pork, chicken, beef, fish, shellfish), vegetable, (such as onions or peanuts) or grain (wheat). Many Thai dishes are hot and spicy so you must enjoy food that is at least a 5 on a heat scale of 1 to 10. Remember, a 5 in a Thai restaurant may be more spicy than the equivalent dish in the United States! It is important that you like rice, fish, pork, shrimp and other seafood. Because of the culinary focus of the trips, market walks are a highlight and we will frequently be eating our way through the markets, sampling street food.

Lodging

For the most part, we stay in comfortable, moderate lodgings close to our activities. We do not stay in international 4- or 5-star hotels, or hotels that resemble, for instance, the Holiday Inn. While traveling in the South we will stay on islands where the accommodations are rather basic. On the islands, electricity is often by generator and may be available as little as 4 hours or less in the evening. Often top sheets are not used and only a blanket is provided. Most of the islands do not have hot water, which should not be a problem in a tropical country. In some places you may need to carry your own luggage.

Wake-up Time

Thailand is a tropical country that can get very hot in the afternoons. In order to take advantage of the cooler mornings, most days will begin fairly early – breakfast at 7:00 a.m. is not uncommon. The mornings we leave Bangkok we usually leave at 5:30 or 6:00 a.m. in order to avoid rush-hour traffic.

Restroom Facilities

All of our hotels have western-style toilets that allow sitting. While on the road we will quite often encounter Asian-style toilets in gas stations and many restaurants. These toilets require the user to squat (much like you do when you go camping).

Itinerary

The itinerary is subject to change and activities may be altered. Since the itinerary is geared toward “off-the-beaten track” travel, we do not spend much time in Bangkok and do not always visit many of the better known tourist sites, such as Wat Phra Kaeo (the Grand Palace), in Bangkok.

Northeastern Thailand (Isaan)

This trip is even more “off-the-beaten track” than many of Kasma’s other trips. Isaan is one of the poorer regions of Thailand and you’ll get to see areas that most tourists do not see.
