November 2011

Dear January/February 2013 Southern Trip (C) Member,

Here are the General Trip Conditions with Addendum and Application to Participate for Kasma Loha-unchit's January 24 – February 21, 2013 twenty-eight day trip to Southern Thailand. In order to reserve a spot we ask that you return the Application to Participate along with a $400 deposit.

We are glad you've decided to travel with Kasma to Thailand in 2013. If you have not yet read the Frequently Asked Questions, we ask that you do so. We will send you a copy if you can not access them online at:

<http://www.thaifoodandtravel.com/travel/tripfaq.html>

Flight Arrangements

Due to the volatility of airline pricing, our trip price includes the portion of the trip in Thailand, only. It includes all transportations costs in Thailand but not the price of getting to and from Thailand.

We can book your flight from San Francisco and add the cost of air travel to the trip cost. In some circumstances, we may be able to book your flight directly from a closer city, depending on the carrier we have selected for the year. If we make your travel arrangements, we can usually pick you up at the airport and deliver you back to the airport at the end of the trip.

Alternatively, you could make arrangements to get to and from Bangkok on your own. In this instance, you are responsible for getting to and from the airport; however if your schedule matches the schedule of the flight we have chosen for other trip members, we may be able to pick you up and deliver you.

At the time of your enrollment in the trip we can check with our agent and let you know what the air travel cost would be at that time.

Travel Insurance

We do not provide travel or cancellation insurance of any kind. If you wish to purchase it on your own, most companies require that you purchase it within two weeks of the date on your check for the initial payment in order to get full coverage, including coverage of pre-existing medical conditions. If you are thinking of getting insurance you should find a plan and make sure of the conditions for payment prior to sending your deposit.

One plan that appears worth investigating is from Travel Guard, found online at: www.travelguard.com. Their phone number is (800) 826-4919.

Probably the easiest way to find and purchase travel insurance is online by doing a search on "travel insurance" at www.google.com.

Please do get in touch if you have any other questions.

We look forward to traveling together in early 2013!

Best,

Michael Babcock

Trip C – Southern Thailand
January 24 – February 21, 2013 (28 days)
General Trip Conditions

TRIP PRICE: $3,750, plus (optional) cost of air travel to Thailand. Subject to change.

*All rates are per person double occupancy, based on a group with 5 to 14 trip members. Round-trip airfare from San Francisco (SFO) is not included. If we are unable to provide you with a roommate, you will need to pay for a single supplement (adds approximately $1,300). For group size of 10 or fewer, add $275 per person. All rates are subject to change as necessitated by unanticipated increases in room rates and fluctuations in currency

RESERVATIONS: All reservations require a $400 deposit per person. If you are making your own travel arrangements, $200 (only) of that deposit is refundable up until the date of September 24, 2012. If we are making travel arrangements to Thailand for you, the entire deposit becomes non-refundable when we purchase your ticket or on September 24, 2012, whichever comes first. In both instances, after September 24, the entire deposit is non-refundable. The balance is due not later than November 10, 2012 (75 days prior to departure). No money will be returned after this time. Deposit applies to January 24 – February 21, 2013 trip only; it is non-transferable. A trip minimum of five persons must be met for the trip to proceed.

CANCELLATIONS/REFUNDS: A deposit refund of $200 will be made if written request is received by September 24, 2012 and we have not purchased an airplane ticket to Thailand for you. After that date, no portion of the deposit will be refundable. Final payment is due (received by us) no later than 75 days before departure, which is November 10, 2012. After that time no refund will be made unless the trip is canceled by us, in which case trip members will be refunded in full. During the trip, should a trip member decide to leave the group at any time, a refund will not be given for unused portions of the trip package.

TRIP PRICE INCLUDES:

Accommodations: Hotels, or similar lodging, based on two persons sharing a twin-bedded room, hut or bungalow, with private facilities. An exception will be national park housing, where several trip members may need to share dorm-style bungalows. On some national park islands, only tent camping may be available.

Meals: All meals are included – breakfast, lunch and dinner, except for meals trip member chooses to have away from the group.

Transportation: Land transportation by motorcoach, car, van, minibus, train, boat or other local conveyance (including air travel within Thailand while traveling with the group) while in Thailand are included. You have the option to have us make travel arrangements to Thailand for you with the cost of the ticket to be added to the total trip price. Air travel arrangements will be made through a licensed travel agent.

Services: Services of bilingual guides and entrance fees to places visited are included.

RESPONSIBILITY: Kasma Loha-unchit Clark, operator of this trip, the travel agent, trip escorts, trip organizers, sponsors and assistants act only as agents for the passengers in regard to travel whether by railroad, bus, motorcars, boats, airplanes, or animal rides and assume no liability for any injury, damage, loss, accident, delay or irregularity which may be occasioned either by reason of defect in any vehicle or through acts of default of any company or persons engaged in conveying the passengers or in carrying out the arrangements of the trip. We can accept no responsibility for losses or additional expense due to delay or changes in train or other services, sickness, weather, strikes, war, quarantine, uncontrollable events or other causes such as not meeting the trip minimum. All such losses will have to be borne by the passengers as trip rates provide arrangements only for the times stated. Baggage is at owner's risk. The trip organizer accepts no responsibility for securing, handling, or possession of passports or travel documents; nor for the accuracy of information given regarding such documents. It is the responsibility of the passenger to make sure that he/she is in possession of the proper travel documents and is in compliance with the current carrier and government regulations. Right is reserved at our sole discretion to withdraw any trip, and to make any changes in the itinerary we deem necessary or desirable, and to decline to accept or retain any person as a member of the trip at any time should such person's health, mental condition, physical infirmity or general deportment impede the operation of the trip or the rights, welfare or enjoyment of other trip members. Rates, costs, and schedules are subject to change. The airlines concerned are not to be held responsible for any act or omission or event during the time the passengers are not on board their plane or conveyance. The passage contract ticket in use by airlines concerned, when issued, shall constitute the sole contract between airlines and passengers.

Addendum
General Trip Conditions
Trip C – Southern Thailand
January 24 – February 21, 2013 (28 days)

This page lists the areas that have caused some difficulty on past trips. By signing the Application to Participate you signify your acceptance of these conditions.

Food

All meals provided on the trip will be Thai and other Asian food. Kasma does all the ordering for the entire group. You must love Thai food. Since the food is served “family style,” we cannot accept anyone who has special dietary needs – including food allergies, strong food preferences or not eating a specific food be it animal (pork, chicken, fish, shellfish), vegetable (such as onions or peanuts) or grain (wheat). Many Thai dishes are hot and spicy so you must enjoy food that is at least a 5 on a heat scale of 1 to 10. Remember, a 5 in a Thai restaurant may be more spicy than the equivalent dish in the United States! It is important that you like rice, fish, pork, shrimp and other seafood. Because of the culinary focus of the trips, market walks are a highlight and we will frequently be eating our way through the markets, sampling street food.

Lodging

For the most part, we stay in comfortable, moderate lodgings close to our activities. We do not stay in international 4- or 5-star hotels, or hotels that resemble, for instance, the Holiday Inn. While traveling in the South we will stay on islands where the accommodations can be very basic. On the islands electricity is often by generator and may be available as little as 4 hours or less in the evening. Often top sheets are not used and only a blanket is provided. Most of the islands do not have hot water, which should not be a problem in a tropical country. During this trip of southern Thailand, on national park islands we may stay in dormitory-style accommodations or tents. In some places you will need to carry your own luggage.

Wake-up Time

Thailand is a tropical country that can get very hot in the afternoons. In order to take advantage of the cooler mornings, most days will begin fairly early – breakfast at 7:00 a.m. is not uncommon. The mornings we leave Bangkok we usually leave at 5:30 or 6:00 a.m. in order to avoid rush-hour traffic.

Restroom Facilities

All of our hotels have western-style toilets that allow sitting. While on the road we will quite often encounter Asian-style toilets in gas stations and many restaurants. These toilets require the user to squat (much like you do when you go camping). If we need to stay in tents on one national park island, the nearest rest room may have only Asian-style toilets.

Itinerary

The itinerary is subject to change and activities may be altered. Since the itinerary is geared toward “off-the-beaten track” travel, we do not spend much time in Bangkok and do not always visit many of the better known tourist sites, such as Wat Phra Kaeo (the Grand Palace), in Bangkok.

Boats

While journeying in the south we spend a fair amount of time on boats. Many of these boats are of the “longtail” variety, requiring the passenger to wade into ankle- to knee-deep water in order to climb into the boat; ladders are occasionally available. Luggage may occasionally get wet from salt spray. On this trip of southern Thailand we will also use larger boats that often require climbing over other boats and/or using narrow ladders in order to embark and disembark. You may need to carry your own luggage on and off the boats.

Snorkeling & Swimming

On the Southern trip we spend a fair amount of time snorkeling and swimming in the ocean. If you do not know how to swim or are not an avid snorkeler, we cannot accept you for this trip.

I have read the Frequently Asked Questions found online at <http://www.thaifoodandtravel.com/travel/tripfaq.html>, the attached General Trip Conditions (front and back) and the Addendum and understand the conditions of the trip.

I have been informed that the accommodations for the trip will not be in international chain hotels, but rather, comfortable, moderate lodgings most conveniently situated for me to experience the local culture or the country's natural areas.

I understand that the meals provided will be Thai and other Asian food served in restaurants where local people dine. I love spicy Thai food and can eat spicy food that is at least 5 on a scale of 1 to 10. I do not have any special dietary needs or food allergies. I eat pork, chicken, beef, fish and shellfish (including shrimp).

Because of the personal nature of the trip, I will be kind and considerate of other trip members, the trip leader and assistants. For my benefit and the benefit of other trip members, I understand that any trip member who disrupts group harmony may be asked to leave the trip without refund at the discretion of the trip leader
